

When Wisconsin's no-call list went into effect my wife and I said to each other, "At last - government has responded to the will of the people." Please don't let special interests mess up our lives again by intruding on our privacy through the telephone.

Edward Ruhlander